Board Member Nominee

Renee Haug

Faith Journey:

I accepted Christ as my Savior when I was in the first grade and was baptized in the third grade. I have been blessed to have many people disciple me in my walk over the subsequent years and I continue to grow in my relationship with Him.

Family & Home:

I've been married to Kevin for 17 years, and we have one daughter, Kaylee, and live in Papillion, NE. We began attending LifeSpring when we moved to Nebraska in October of 2017 and became members in November 2017. We currently attend the 11am service.

Occupation:

I am currently a stay-at-home/homeschool teaching mom. Previously, I have been a teacher and a Child Support Services manager for the Office of the Attorney General of the District of Columbia.

Currently serving at church:

At LifeSpring, I currently teach the Pre-K Sunday School class at 9:30, co-lead the 9-10th grade girls in Student Ministry, and host a LifeGroup in my home. I am also able to join the Wednesday morning Women's Bible study as a student this year.

Church service in the past:

I have volunteered at VBS and hosted counselors from Eagle Lake Camp. In past churches, I have been the Children's Ministry Coordinator, a Youth Ministry volunteer, a Sunday School teacher, a Woman's Bible Study Leader, and a Church Board Secretary.

Administrative/leadership skills to bring to the Board:

My experience as a manager has equipped me to engage with people from various backgrounds. I learned to long-range vision plan, write policy, and pivot as necessary. I am also skilled at seeing the details in the long-range plan that need to be addressed to meet the goals. As a homeschool mom, I have honed the skill of coordinating chaos and making it manageable.

Why I feel led to serve on the Board:

This was not an opportunity that I sought but when a friend told me she wanted to nominate me, I prayed and felt at peace about it. While I am most comfortable serving in the background, I think it is important to serve where God leads. Having experience actively working in both the children and student ministry, I feel like I may have unique perspectives to share. Most of all, I love LifeSpring and have seen God doing great works over the past few years and I'm excited to continue to serve wherever I can.

Faith Journey:

I asked Jesus to be my Lord and Savior when I was 7 years old. Since that time, I have grown closer to the Lord and my relationship with him has developed as I have matured. God has been faithful and I have seen Him work in my life. Throughout my life He has revealed different aspects of Himself as I have grown closer to Him.

Family & Home:

I am married to John my husband of 41 years and we have four sons that live all around the states. We have 7 grandchildren. We enjoy visiting our sons, daughters-in-law and grandchildren whenever we get the chance. We live in Savanna Shores in Papillion, NE. We joined the church in December 2004. We usually attend the 11:00 service

Occupation:

I am a retired music teacher. I taught for 14 years in the Omaha Public Schools. Prior to teaching I was a stay-at-home mom.

Past & Current service at church:

I have been active in many churches as a teacher, youth worker, choir director, choir member, soloist and VBS worker. At LSC I am currently a Worship Team member and lead the songwriting ministry. In the past at LSC I have worked in VBS and with the youth. I am an active member of a Lifegroup.

Administrative/leadership skills to bring to the Board:

As a teacher I was able to problem solve daily and manage several different personalities and skill levels at one time. I had to do advance planning and set long term goals and determine the best way to reach those goals, all the while I having to be flexible to make changes as circumstances change.

Why I feel led to serve on the Board:

The Church Board has worked over the past three years to manage the resources and personnel that God has provided our church, so that we can be and do what He has called us to. God continues to work at LifeSpring and I am excited to see what He will do in and through us to grow disciples and further His Kingdom. I do not believe my time on the Board is finished and I feel God would have me continue for my last term of eligibility. It has been an honor and privilege to serve in this role.
